PRODUCT INFORMATION

Falabella is a tribute to the craftsmanship and love of a carefully chiseled solitaire. Designed by Lucy Kurrein, Falabella is a neat and lightweight piece of furniture with a personal shape and a name borrowed from the world's smallest horse. The stool is small, neat and lightweight, made of molded plywood, sculptural in its expression and easy both to move around and to like. The Falabella stool is available with an upholstered seat and is available in ash veneer and black matt lacquer.

"Falabella is based on a design idea that I have carried with me for a long time, ever since my studies. Although the product may look straightforward and simple, it puts high demands on the manufacturer's craftsmanship. When Offecct asked me to create a small piece of occasional furniture, it was finally possible for us to make Falabella come true," says Lucy Kurrein.
